H. B. M.'s CONSULATE, GENERAL, Honolulu, Woshoo, Feby, the 15th, 1851.

The attention of British Subjects residing, or who may come to reside, on these Islands, is hereby called to the circular of his Hawaiian Majesty's Minister for Foreign Relations, of the 10th instant, published in the Polynesian of this day, and especially to the law therein referred to, namely, Section VI of the Second Act of Kamehameha III. page 77 of the Statute Laws. which requires that, "Aliens coming to reside and do business, or ac pire advantages in this kingdom, shall, in order to the validity of their transactions, and to the valid ac quisition of such advantages, exhibit to the Minister of the Interior their passports, certified as hereinbefore required, (by some diplomatic agent, consul or Commercial Agent) and shall obtain from said Minister, a certificate of Nationality."

Therefore, all British residents who have not complied with the law. as well as all British subjects who may hereafter come to reside on these Islands, are recommended to lose no time in obtaining their respective certificate of nationality, as enjoined by the Statute Law of this kingdom, in order to enable them to lease, rent, or purchase land, or to transact other business, with due validity. British subjects who have come to these Island without a passport can, if required, apply for a corresponding document in lieu thereof at this Consulate General.
